Making the Countdown Count Deuteronomy 6:1-9

ICE-BREAKER:

What is the most important thing you learned from your parents?

If you have children, what is the most important thing you passed along or hope to pass along to them?

READ: Deuteronomy 6:1-9

DISCUSS:

In addition to being lived out, the call of Deuteronomy 6 is to be passed on. Whose responsibility is this? What difference does it make?

"Eternal truths are most effectively taught in the loving environment of a Christian home." Do you agree or disagree with this statement? Please explain your answer.

Can you provide an example of how you have seen discipleship take place at home, at work, in the car, on the road, at the ball game, or during COVID-19?

What does God promise when we obey His commands?

What can children teach older people about honoring God?

What is your personal commitment to investing in the spiritual lives of young people?

APPLY:

What is one practical way you can pass along the principles of Deuteronomy 6 today?

How can you thank God this week for how far He has brought you in your faith?
