He's Still* Got the Whole World in His Hands Week 1

ICE-BREAKER:

When or where did you first hear the song “He’s Got the Whole World in His Hands”?

DISCUSS:

Why are we able to trust God with our eternal destiny, but sometimes struggle to trust Him with our future here on earth?

As the news of what’s happening in our world keeps getting worse, do you ever find yourself wondering if God still has the whole world in His hands?

Has the past 2-3 years affected your ability to trust God for the future? If so, in what way?

READ: “And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose.” – Romans 8:28 (NIV)

Do you think the disciples would echo these same sentiments after seeing what God was up to in all the uncertainty that they faced the night of Jesus’ arrest?

How about Moses’ mother? Do you think she would agree that God was at work in ways she could not see? How are you personally able to maintain faith in God, even when you can’t readily see His hand at work?

APPLICATION:

Even though life is uncertain, family is uncertain, the economy is uncertain, and even the world itself can feel so uncertain at times, how will you remain confident in God?

What steps can you take to trust Christ with the circumstances you do not yet understand this week?
