Start with an icebreaker question to get everyone talking, then choose the questions that work best for your group.

He's Still* Got the Whole World in His Hands Week 2

ICE-BREAKER:

How does God sometimes use uncertain times to get our attention?

DISCUSS:

Has God ever gotten your attention through difficulty or challenges you have faced? If so, what happened?

What is the difference between the peace of God and peaceful circumstances?

According to Romans 8:28, God is at work in ways we cannot see. What makes it difficult for you to trust that God really is working together for our good in all things?

What should we do when it seems like God isn't at work and He doesn't seem to be answering our prayers?

Is there a better way to handle it when the uncertainty is becoming more uncertain?

READ: *"Don't worry about anything; instead, pray about everything. Tell God what you need, and thank him for all he has done. Then you will experience God's peace, which exceeds anything we can understand. His peace will guard your hearts and minds as you live in Christ Jesus." – Philippians 4:6-7 (NLT)

Instead of being stressed out in those moments of high anxiety, what would it take for you to be able to learn how to pray until the peace comes?

APPLICATION:

Do you think it is possible to experience an indescribable peace, even in the midst of the most undesirable or uncertain circumstances? What would that require for you?

When you pray, what is it that you truly desire from the Lord? In other words, what is the deepest desire of your heart?
