ICE-BREAKER:

As you were growing up, did you see healthy examples of reconciliation, or did your family struggle to find a way to get along?

If you surveyed all your current relationships, are you typically the more mature or less mature person? Would the “other” person in these relationships agree with your answer?

READ: “Therefore, if you are offering your gift at the altar and there remember that your brother or sister has something against you, leave your gift there in front of the altar. First go and be reconciled to them; then come and offer your gift.”
- Matthew 5:23-24 (NIV)

Why do you think it would be important to be reconciled to another person before offering your gift to God?

What has been the most helpful part of this series for you personally?

READ: “We implore you on Christ’s behalf: Be reconciled to God.” - 2 Corinthians 5:20b

Romans 5:10-11 also invites us to be reconciled to God. Would you say you have been reconciled to God? What makes you think that?

“If it is possible, as far as it depends on you, be at peace with everyone.”
- Romans 12:18 (NIV)
